Contact

Momocca is a young brand with the ambition to transform corporate spaces and with the expertise of knowing that flexible, warm and quality furniture is sought, with responsible production.

Its product is characterized by being:

- Hybrid, contract furniture of domestic appearance
- Flexible, modular and highly adaptable
- Noble, authentic in quality and responsible production
- Unique, for its design with character

His designs within the domestic aspect seek to remain in time, with organic forms dialoguing with natural materials.

Its company philosophy is based on creating long-term relationships through honesty, valuing people and their satisfaction. They work on the move, with active listening and being creative offering commitment and responsibility. A young spirit that allows them to work driving design thinking, digitalization and agile methodologies.

ORIGIN

Momocca was born in 2017, with a team of two, Pablo and Lourdes, founders of the brand.

The aim was to create a collection of innovative and quality hybrid products to adapt to different solutions. Own different design both in form and matter.

PRESENT

Today Momocca has reached more than 20 countries and continues to drive the brand in its internationalization. The design has been open to collaborations with prestigious designers while maintaining the Momocca style.

FUTURE

The aim is to create a peaceful, domestic design culture, which lives in contract, encouraging the creation of spaces that will last both aesthetically and quality.

The story behind Momocca is that of Lourdes and Pablo.

Lourdes is creative and emotional, Pablo is meticulous and sensible. The perfect pairing that has led them to form two families: the personal and the professional. Momocca is a reflection of all this; closeness, sincerity and humanity.

Lourdes is an architect. She knows the challenge of giving life to spaces through interior design and knows that every project and every client is unique. That's why he strives to create versatile designs that can be adapted to any need.

Pablo is an engineer. He has extensive experience in the industrial fabric of the sector and knows that the national product is a safe bet. Working with quality materials and suppliers that take care of the details and work sustainably is his maximum.

Together they have shaped Momocca, a furniture firm that with its team of professionals from Design, Marketing, Sales and Operations, responds to the needs of furnishing spaces designed to promote the well-being of people.

MISSION

To respond to the needs of furniture in corporate spaces through flexible, quality and domestic aspect products.
